Wright State University purchases self-funded medical and prescription coverage for eligible employees who elect enrollment and their qualifying dependents. The carrier for this coverage is Anthem. Employees pay a portion of this cost on a pre-tax payroll deduction basis. The coverage provides benefits for such items as hospitalization, surgery, physician care and prescription drugs. Employees share in the cost of these services through co-payments and deductibles as well. The cost of this coverage is not expected to exceed $31,100,000 for calendar year 2018. The previously approved amount was for the 2nd half of calendar year 2017 to coincide with the contract.
